Black Leadership Advancing the Community (B.L.A.C.) Awards

Individual Awards

Black Student Alliance Legacy Award

True leaders serve, and true servants lead. The Legacy award seeks to award a student(s) who has devoted their time and effort in servant leadership through Black Student Alliance. The recipient(s) of this award will have made a significant effort to contribute to the Black community by uniquely addressing problems or improving situations. The recipient(s) will demonstrate a vision of a campus left better because of the work the student(s) has done.

Myrtle Craig Mowbary Award

This award recognizes a first-year student(s) who have presented exceptional leadership and remained active in contributions to the Black community.

Robert L. Green Award

This award recognizes a student with active participation in community service and a commitment to civic engagement and social justice for the Black community at Michigan State University and beyond.

Vence Bonham Award

This award recognizes a student who is working toward the advancement of society through active participation in scholarly research.

David W. Dickson Award

This award is given to a faculty or staff member in recognition of their significant contributions to the lives of Black students at Michigan State University. The recipient of this award has made contributions in the areas of scholarship, professional services, student life, mentoring, and development.

Dr. Lee June Award

This award commemorates a graduating senior(s) who has sustained the legacy of Black student leadership through a commitment to the intersections of scholarship, civic engagement, and social justice. This student(s) has made an active commitment through their MSU career(s) to the uplift of Black students through personal integrity, mentorship, and community involvement.

Dr. Carl Taylor Award

This award is given to a student who exemplifies leadership through campus and community involvement. This student is an emerging leader who has exhibited integrity, collaboration, and intellectual, emotional, and social growth.
